FLOW MATE

Pumptronics FLOW MATE Controller records up to 400 consecutive days of daily flow information from up to two flow meters. It includes software that allows you to easily download that information to your laptop computer in a format suitable for MOE submission.

The flow mate can also control up to two pumps on a time or float basis and can automatically disable a pump when a maximum daily flow is reached.

Economical and easy to install, the Flow Mate makes managing your water use data simple and easier than ever before.
